

Areas of Expertise

International Residential Codes
International Building Codes
Life Safety Code
Program Management
Civil Mechanical Structural Environmental Permitting

Education

1977 Northeast Louisiana University

Butch Volentine

Project Manager

SPECIFIC EXPERIENCE

Mr. Volentine has over 39 years of project management and consultancy experience. His infrastructure background includes Lead Project Manager and Manager on multiple projects of plant design and construction, housing subdivisions covering infrastructure utilities and stormwater management, wood product plants covering construction and management, coal to oil plant infrastructure design, methanol plant infrastructure design, pipe line construction covering natural gas to water.

Mr. Volentine has been with Borrel Engineering for the past 10 years as lead Project Manager overseeing civil, mechanical, structural projects.

Mr. Volentine has been associated with the following types of projects over his career with Borrel Engineering:

Greenfield Construction

The design of civil infrastructure covering several different types of petroleum plants in multiple states and associated pipeline construction.

The management of design and construction of various municipal water line projects.

Project management for multi-unit housing subdivisions, covering the utility infrastructure design, and stormwater management.

Helipad design and construction as project manager.
